Emergency housing: Gecina temporarily makes premises available in Paris' 14th arrondissement

Gecina has responded to the appeal by the French Minister of Housing and Urban Affairs inviting private real estate firms to identify premises in order to offer emergency housing spaces for disadvantaged communities.

Premises in Paris' 14th arrondissement have freely been made temporarily available for six months. The structure could have a capacity of 150 spaces, accommodating families and women leaving maternity units in particular. An additional 50 spaces could be made available in the event of very cold weather.

These premises will be managed by the association France Horizon.

Gecina has signed up to the "charter for the development of temporary occupation as a tool to serve the Paris region" since August 26, 2019.
